

DEER VALLEY®

BOB WHEATON
PRESIDENT
DEER VALLEY RESORT COMPANY

Bob Wheaton brings over 35 years of ski industry expertise to his position as president and general manager of Deer Valley Resort, Park City, Utah. Wheaton joined Deer Valley in 1981 and has held a variety of positions with the resort, being appointed general manager in 1988, vice-president of operations in 1989 and president in 1997.

In addition to his responsibilities at the Resort, Wheaton is very active in community organizations, including being a past member and president of the Board of Directors for the Park City Chamber and Visitor's Bureau, as well as president of the Intermountain Ski Areas Association Board of Directors. He is currently a member of the Executive Committee and two-time past president of the Utah Ski Association and has served on the Board of Governors for the Salt Lake Area Chamber of Commerce. Bob received the Outstanding Contribution Award from the Intermountain Ski Areas Association and was awarded Park City Rotary Club's Professional Citizen of the Year. As Deer Valley was a venue site for the 2002 Winter Olympic Games, he worked closely with the Salt Lake Organizing Committee to ensure all facets of the events were carried out with the highest standards.

Originally from Michigan, Wheaton is a graduate of Macomb College and has been a certified ski instructor since 1976. He currently resides just outside of Park City in Woodland with his wife Marion. His son Cody is currently serving the United States Army and his daughter Emily recently graduated from the New School of Music in New York. His favorite activities include skiing, fly fishing, boating, horseback riding, and camping.
