Utah Trails and Pathways Conference 2006 - Ogden City, Weber Pathways, the Ogden Trails Network, and the Weber-Morgan Health Department are proudly hosting the 2006 Utah Trails and Pathways Conference. The conference will be held at the Ogden Eccles Conference Center, September 7 – 9th. This year's conference theme is "Utah Trails: The Heartbeat of a Community".

The conference will begin with a keynote address from Dr. John Librett, current principal of "The Active Survivor's Network" and former head of Trails for Health Initiative at the U.S. Centers for Disease Control. Following him, the lecture series will commence with a wide variety of topics and a number of fantastic presenters. Topics of discussion will include pathways for active people, walkable communities, trail safety, promoting trails, trail building and maintenance, ski trail grooming, how to prepare a successful grant application and many more. There will also be a "Dips and Nicks" session which is a hands-on session that will be held on a local mountain trail.

As well as the indoor lecture series and hands on session, several organized trail activities including walks, hikes and bike rides have been scheduled during both the morning and afternoon for attendees wishing to participate. The conference will be brought to a close at the Earl Lodge located at Snowbasin Ski Resort. The closing session will include lunch and a gondola ride from the lodge to the top of the mountain. Participants will have the opportunity to spend time taking a nature walk, or may choose to walk, bike or ride a horse down the mountain.

For more information regarding the conference, please feel free to visit the website at www.utahtrailsconference.com or call (801) 629-8558.

New Warrior Training Adventure - This is a men's WEEKEND experience starting at 6 pm Friday finishing at 4 pm Sunday.

For men who want to become better men, plain and simple.

You may be a natural leader of men and yet you still want more or you may be in the throws of a crisis and have no clue which way is up!

If you are confident already and notice there are still situations where you could act better, this training will change the way you experience that reaction.

Maybe you wimp out with women, with powerful men, in groups... Or react with anger inappropriately?

The New Warrior Training Adventure reaches into your masculine soul wakes up forces within you that have been there from the very beginning of time... forces that the very best fathers, leaders, husbands partners and brothers have always shared.

The Weekend welcomes all men and is not religious but many men experience a valuable spiritual connection that they may have had trouble "feeling" before.

Make no mistake, you WILL elevate your sense of accountability to yourself, your family and your community. We want to instill every man in the world with the drive and context to be a man of integrity, a man of honor and a man with a mission that is true to your heart!

We literally awaken your head, heart and soul to the power, courage, terror and inspiration of being a man.

Compassionate, not apologetic for being men nor tolerant of idiotic modernist stereotypes.

The Mankind Project is 20 years old, a 503C Not for Profit Corp and have trained 35,000 men in 10 countries in three languages. As a largely "grassroots" organization we tend to be a word of mouth marketer, men experience the training and tell other men. The Salt Lake area community of New Warrior men's groups is sponsored by the Mankind Project Arizona Center and the September training will be the 2nd training in this area. There are 125 trainings a year around the world, follow the links at <http://az0906dep.mollyguard.com> if the September date doesn't work for you.

Arizona has New Warrior Training Adventures in August and October and Los Angeles does 5 trainings a year. Again, follow links from <http://az0906dep.mollyguard.com> to find more.

Utah's Recovery Day is sponsored by the State and Salt Lake County Division of Substance Abuse. Proceeds from the race will benefit Utah Alcoholism Foundation's (UAF) substance abuse treatment programs. Pre-registration is $20 and includes a t-shirt; day-of registration is $25.

Thousands of Utah residents have attained drug and alcohol free lives with the help of UAF since its founding in 1946. UAF, a non-profit organization is the oldest provider of alcoholism and chemical dependency services in Utah. UAF provides addiction treatment services to women with children (Salt Lake City and Provo), and men and women (Ogden). UAF also provides community education and DUI classes. The programs offer both inpatient and outpatient treatment. The mission of UAF is to build futures and unify families to stop generational substance abuse, child abuse and domestic violence. This is accomplished by providing quality, affordable substance abuse treatment, education and prevention services to those who are in need.

Office of Museum Services to Host Wood Conservator - The Division of Arts and Museums Office of Museum Services is pleased to welcome Ronald Sheetz, wood conservator, to Utah, to present public lectures at 7:00 pm. on September 11-13, 2006. Admission is free for these presentations at the following locations:

- September 11 - Helper, Rio Theater
- September 12 - Fillmore, Territorial Statehouse State Park Museum
- September 13 - Salt Lake City, Rio Grande Depot

Topics of discuss will appeal to people interested in a variety of subjects such as history, archaeology, woodworking, log cabins, antiques, and conservation of old objects.

Margaret Hunt, director of the Division of Arts and Museums, states, Rons stories of the history and uses of the objects is a fascinating illustration of the importance of preserving the past and its relationships to the present. He will also give pointers on preserving wooden objects and furniture. Come with your curiosity and questions, and even small objects.

Mr. Sheetz has worked on furniture and wooden objects for over 40 years. As a wood conservator for the National Park Services for many years, he preserved furniture for the White House, the Harry S. Truman home, the Lincoln home, and the Henry Wadsworth Longfellow home. He has also carried out extensive conservation on Native American artifacts from Alaska (especially totem poles). His interest has been on the stories carried by the objects as well as technical preservation methods. He also makes period furniture reproductions.

Lectures will be co-sponsored by the Utah Division of State History, and are partially funded by a grant from the Utah Humanities Council. Arts and Museums and State History are divisions of the Utah Department of Community and Culture.

Reggae In The Mountains Festival 2006 - On September 16, 2006 Salt Lake City's Gallivan Center will be the site for "Reggae in the Mountains Festival." This one-day festival will have something for the whole family, a safe environment, with Great food, incredible music and entertainment from local and International Superstars, Third World. "Third World is more than just one of the top reggae bands of all time, it is an institution — an institution that stands for producing and performing music that, while holding firm to the cultural and ancestral roots of its members, still pushes forward the cutting edge of music worldwide."

The fantastic sound of Reggae was "Created in the late 1950's, and Reggae has become the heartbeat of Jamaica and Urban America: a brand of music that is identified with the islands the same way country music is to Nashville. This is a chance for our beloved community to experience the diverse roots of Jamaica and the Polynesian culture found right here in our own Utah community. It doesn't matter if you're a Reggae enthusiast, calypso lover, or just plain enjoy the islands, this is the festival for you and the family.

You've heard of Reggae on the river; well now we have Reggae In The Mountains. The 2006 Festival is produced by the Waters Group LLC and the director Malcolm Waters is convinced this will be the beginning of a long term yearly event for Salt Lake City.

Your participation will not only provide you an opportunity to enjoy great Caribbean and Hawaiian Food you will be supporting efforts to raise money for charity. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to the Interfaith Hospitality Network and the Utah Peace Institute. These organizations help strengthen our Utah community and your participation will help our homeless families and our youth.

The Gallivan Center will host this exciting event and tickets are on sale now at Smithtix. Ticket costs are $15.00 for adult and children under 6 are free. VIP Tickets are $95.00 (limited availability), which include a private full Authentic Caribbean Buffet, drinks and premium seating.

Reggae In the Mountains Festival 2006 will start at 10:A.M. and end at 10:00 P.M. The entertainment line up is as follows:
African dance show – HISPAFRIC
Hawaiian Fire Show - MOHEKONOKONO
Still Pan to bring the islands home! - PAN JAM
Night Line Professional Dance Company – Dancing to Hip Hop, Jazz and Reggae Beats
Then the fun really starts with music from: Natural Roots, Mana Poly All-Stars, Afro Omega, and presenting..... “THIRD WORLD”

Sep. 21 - Salt Lake City

Design Seminar - In architecture the basic building blocks of good design include space, light and order. When these fundamentals are aligned with the lifestyle of people living in a house, it is truly made into a home. Knowing how to incorporate space, light and order is very valuable when approaching any construction project. In this one hour seminar, we explore these architectural principles and explain their impact on the beauty and function of a home.

Utah Shakespearean Festival - The Tony Award-winning Utah Shakespearean Festival is Utah's premiere theatre destination. Each June through October nine Shakespearean and modern classic theatre productions are presented in one of the country's closest replicas of the Globe Theatre and in the Randall L. Jones Theatre. The 2006 summer season, from June 22 to September 2, features a great lineup with familiar classics and undiscovered favorites. The romantic story of Antony and Cleopatra, the tragic tale of Hamlet, and the comedic gem The Merry Wives of Windsor are sure to delight audiences. The classic Gilbert and Sullivan musical, H.M.S. Pinafore, promises to be a crowd-pleaser with Fred C. Adams, festival founder and executive producer emeritus, in a rare on-stage performance. The drama, On Golden Pond, explores the ties of families across generations. Finally, the summer season is rounded out with the farce of the American theatre, Room Service.

If autumn temperatures and gorgeous fall colors appeal to you, The Festival's Fall season is the perfect combination of outdoor splendor and world-renowned theatre. Three additional productions run from September 22 to October 28. Shakespeare's controversial The Merchant of Venice, the endearing story of Peg o' My Heart, and the campy musical Johnny Guitar make the perfect combination of drama, excitement, and romance.

No Festival experience is complete without the many additional activities available at the Festival: music, costume, actor, and literary seminars; backstage tours; and complimentary Greenshow entertainment each evening. Evening Explorations at Hogle Zoo - Have you ever wondered what the animals are up to after dark? Hogle Zoo has created a special tour that will answer that question and more! Join our Eco-Explorers as they lead you through the Zoo sharing their knowledge about the amazing animals that live here and their counterparts in the wild.

When: July 3 7:30-10:00 pm
July 17 7:30-10:00 pm
August 7 7:30-10:00 pm
August 21 7:30-10:00 pm
September 11 6:30-9:00 pm
September 18 6:30-9:00 pm

(Additional Monday nights are available upon request with a minimum group size of 20. Groups of 20 or more receive the member's price).

Fee: $10 per members/$15 per non-members. Advanced reservations required.

What animals will you see?

You'll see lots of amazing creatures during your stroll. There's no guarantee, however, on what you'll see during our walks on zoo grounds. As in the wild, animals may choose to remain hidden, or may be off exhibit for a number of reasons. As a result, every Zoo Evening Exploration tour will be unique in the animals that are viewed.

What type of gear do we need to bring?

- Clothing for inclement weather (The tour takes you outside)
- Camera to capture those special memories. (Flash pictures are permitted at most areas).
- The zoo will provide flashlights for the tour.

Other questions?

Just Enough Is More: The Graphic Design of Milton Glaser - This exhibition showcases the work of one of America's most distinguished and influential graphic artists. Milton Glaser is regarded as a seminal figure of graphic design and illustration. For more than 50 years, he has created some of the profession's most influential and enduring work. He has had the distinction of one-man shows at the Museum of Modern Art in New York and the Georges Pompidou Center in Paris. In 2004 he was selected for the lifetime achievement award of the Cooper Hewitt National Design Museum. This retrospective exhibition of his work will include such well-known images as Glaser's 1967 iconic poster of Bob Dylan and his ubiquitous and often imitated I♥NY logo.

Historic 25th Street Farmers & Art Market - The Farmer's Market starts off early, in the cool hours of a summer morning, so shoppers can rise with the sun, select the freshest produce, and grab a bite to eat from one of our tempting breakfast vendors. Look for locally grown varieties of your favorite produce—berries, peaches, plums, apples and pears; heirloom tomatoes, peppers, cukes, corn, squash & pumpkins from Summer through Fall. The market also features a variety of specialty flowers, seeds, herbs and potted plants. Over 100 local artisans participate in the ART market each year, selling handmade soaps, pastoral watercolors, metal garden stakes, birdhouses, wreaths, paintings, pottery and silks—all handmade.

The "25th Street Unplugged" acoustic music series wraps the market in a blanket of "good vibrations" guaranteed to put everyone in the right mood for the weekend! Free performances feature a diverse line-up of local musicians each week.
