

UTAH OFFICE OF

L to R: Salt Lake City, the hub of the Intermountain West, serves as a gateway to places such as Yellowstone National Park in neighboring Wyoming, and Mt. Timpanogos from Utah's Heber Valley

With over 800 scheduled daily flights from Salt Lake City International Airport, Utah is the perfect gateway to the Intermountain West's premiere attractions!

Ski Jumping facilities at Utah Olympic Park, Park City

Temple Square in Salt Lake City

Lagoon amusement park, Farmington

Golden Spike National Historic Site, near Brigham City

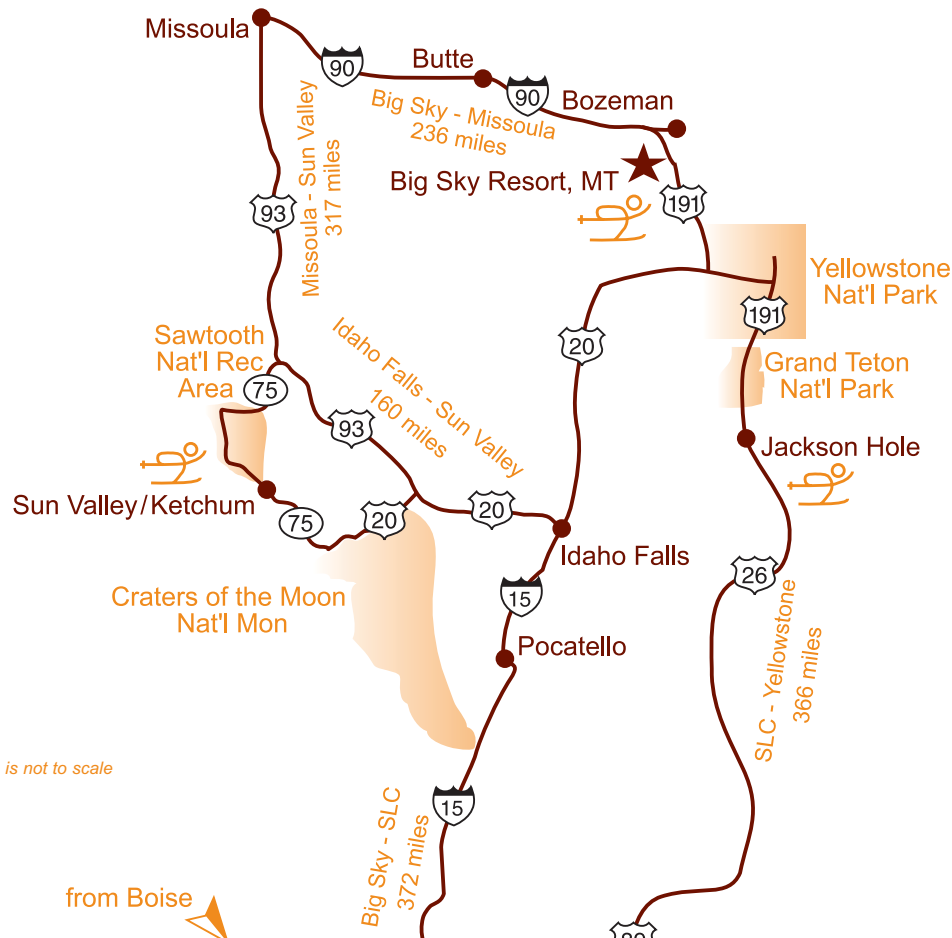

Horse-drawn farming exhibit at the American West Heritage Center, Cache Valley

Antelope Island State Park

- 1 Park City/Utah Olympic Park: Home to three ski resorts and fine dining and shopping, this mountain resort town also houses the Utah Olympic Park where visitors can walk through the Alf Engen Ski Museum, watch athletes in training and participate in a host of other activities.
- 2 This Is The Place Heritage Park, SLC: features Old Deseret Village, a living history museum that recreates a typical Mormon community in the mid-1800s. Also in the park is This is the Place Monument, erected in 1947 to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the arrival of the first Mormon settlers in the valley.
- 3 Historic Temple Square vicinity, SLC: includes the world's largest theater-style conference arena, world's largest genealogical library, and various exhibits and films related to Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon) history and religious beliefs. The Museum of Church History and Art houses historic displays as well as works of LDS artists from around the world.
- 4 Lagoon Amusement Park: Visit one of the largest amusement parks in the West. From roller coasters to rapids, get ready for the ride of your life! Lagoon boasts over 40 exhilarating rides, top musical entertainment, historic Pioneer Village and Lagoon A Beach waterpark along with shopping, food and games.
- 5 Antelope Island State Park: This serene island on the Great Salt Lake is home to one of the largest free-roaming herds of bison in the country and other wildlife, including pronghorn antelope, deer and a wide variety of birds. Tour the backcountry trails on foot or on mountain bike.
- 6 Hill Aerospace Museum: houses one of the largest collections of vintage aircraft in the country. Guided tours engage visitors with factual stories of the planes and the pilots who flew them.
- 7 Ogden Historic 25th Street / Union Station Museums: Historic 25th street is a walk back in time to Ogden's colorful 19th century railroading past and now is home to quaint shops and eateries. The Union Station contains the Browning Arms Collection, Utah State Railroad Museum, Eccles Railroad Center, Browning-Kimball Car Museum, Natural History Museum, Myra Powell Art Gallery and Gallery at the Station.
- 8 Ogden Eccles Dinosaur Park: This eight-acre outdoor museum is unique in its exhibition of full-bodied creatures of the Dinosaur Age. See and hear over 125 prehistoric crawlers, predators, marine creatures and flying reptiles dating from the Permian through Cretaceous periods.
- 9 Willard Bay State Park: Boat, swim, water ski and fish on the warm waters of Willard Bay. Camping amenities include full hookups, day-use cabanas on the beach and boat launch facilities.
- 10 Golden Spike National Historic Site: On May 10, 1869, officials of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific Railroads met here to drive four symbolic spikes, celebrating the completion of the first transcontinental railroad.
- 11 Bear River Migratory Bird Refuge: Located at the northern tip of Great Salt Lake, it is considered a top-ten in the world by many birding enthusiasts. The 75,000 acre refuge is a major staging area for millions of migrating birds and houses a Wildlife Education Center featuring dioramas of wetlands species and habitat.
- 12 Hyrum State Park: Willow, box elder and maple trees surround Hyrum Reservoir providing shade as well as habitat for waterfowl and wildlife. Fishing, camping and beach amenities are available.
- 13 American West Heritage Center, Logan: Experience Utah's past while having fun participating in hands-on activities in this 160-acre living museum of American history.
- 14 Historic Logan: Many beautiful and impressive turn-of-the-century homes, churches, and store buildings are located in downtown Logan, including the Logan LDS Tabernacle and Temple, the 1914 Bluebird Cafe and Cache County Courthouse. Logan is also home to Utah State University.
- 15 Logan Canyon National Scenic Byway: parallels the Logan River through Logan Canyon, passing through dense forests, lush meadows, rugged rock formations and panoramic views.
- 16 Bear Lake State Park: Minerals suspended in the waters of Bear Lake create its spectacular aqua-blue color. Brilliant waters, combined with sandy beaches, lure visitors to play, fish, boat and camp.
- 17 Jackson Hole, WY: Founded in the early 1800s by fur trappers, Jackson is world-famous for its wildlife and beautiful location near the base of the Teton Mountain Range. Today, travelers can enjoy the many restaurants and shops, or experience an authentic western chuckwagon.
- 18 Grand Teton National Park, WY: The abrupt vertical rise of the jagged Teton Range contrasts with the horizontal sage-covered valley and glacial lakes at their base, creating world-renowned scenery that attracts nearly four million visitors per year.
- 19 Yellowstone National Park, WY: America's first national park, Yellowstone is home to a large variety of wildlife including grizzly bears, wolves, bison, and elk. Preserved within Yellowstone National Park are Old Faithful and a collection of the world's most extraordinary geysers and hot springs, and the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone.
- 20 Sun Valley / Sawtooth Mountains, ID: Born out of a desire to bring the magic of the European resorts to America, Sun Valley and nearby Ketchum, at the base of the Sawtooth Mountain Range, offer a year-round mountain resort experience.
- 21 Craters of the Moon National Monument, ID: is a vast ocean of lava flows with scattered islands of cinder cones and sagebrush. Come explore this "weird and scenic landscape" where yesterday's volcanic events are likely to continue tomorrow...

* Map is not to scale

