VISITOR PROFILE

Active families seeking quality time with fun, yet educational, aspects for their kids. These visitors are traveling during school holidays and tend to be budget cautious. Outdoorsy couples are those with two sources of income and no children. They are looking for transformational travel and the chance to immerse themselves in nature/local life. Globetrotting retirees are an affluent target group who are very comfortable traveling; they will travel for a longer period of time and have the ability to choose off season. Experienced skiers exploring new resorts.

BUYING TRAVEL
71% of travel was booked via the internet. Tour operator bookings, however, are still growing (+2%), especially for long-haul travel which requires detailed advice.

CUSTOMER NEEDS AND EXPECTATIONS
The Swiss traveler expects their hotel to provide breakfast (at least a continental breakfast) as it is customary at home. Traditionally, they aren’t used to the level of air conditioning utilized inside buildings in the U.S. and prefer to have control of the thermostat within their room. Cleanliness is an important factor when picking accommodations.
